Walking The Body's Labyrinth

Come walk the aisles of the labyrinth of your soul to connect with your creation and inspiration while pulsating through your heart

- Experience self-awareness and self-acceptance.
- Receive information from the heavens and earth about your life path.
- Connect with your lost soul energy.
- Awaken your intuition.

Walk your body's energetic labyrinth as laid down in your bone, fascia tissue, cell membranes, and central nervous system. Identify and move through stuck points in the body that reduce connection to your embodied soul essence, in a beautifully supportive environment. Our own body labyrinth is laid down in layers (similar to the actual labyrinth) such that we can repeatedly revisit the aisles of our body's labyrinth in our path to enlightenment. Join us and walk to embody your soul energy.

Walking The Body's Labyrinth is four independent one-day workshops developed to inspire going within. The workshops are experiential, meditative, and vibratory – and can be revisited to attain new levels of transformation.
